WHAT QUALIFICATIONS WILL I GET?

On successful completion of this course students will achieve a Certificate in Education and Training (CET) Level 4 qualification.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Certificate in Education and Training (CET) Level 4 is a first stage teaching qualification, which has a teaching/training practice requirement. It is an 'in service' qualification for those working or wishing to work as teachers/trainers in England.

It may be possible for pre-service teachers/trainers (defined as those who are not formally contracted as teachers/trainers) to also complete this qualification. This qualification is also suitable for those delivering education and training in any learning environment.

DELIVERY MODEL:

A combination of face-to-face lessons in the classroom, remote delivery via Teams, one-to-one tutorials.

UNITS/TOPICS COVERED:

- Understanding roles, responsibilities and relationships in education and training
- Planning to meet the needs of learners in education and training
- Delivering education and training
- Assessing learners in education and training
- Using resources for education and training
- Managing behaviours in a learning environment
- Working with the 14-19 age range

TYPE OF ASSESSMENT:

To achieve the Certificate in Education and Training (CET) Level 4 qualification, candidates must achieve a minimum of 36 credits, mandatory and optional units. There is a mix of theoretical and practical assignments: six written assignments and three observations of teaching.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED:

Lever arch file and basic stationery.

WHERE CAN IT LEAD?

The qualification allows candidates to progress into employment as teachers/trainers, as well as to the following City & Guilds qualifications:

- Diploma in Education and Training (DET) Level 5

These qualifications can also help you to progress in teaching/training in a wide range of organisations in the lifelong learning sector. These include:

- Public sector organisations
- Private sector organisations
